As a talented and creative litigator, Shay represents diverse clients in high-stakes business disputes involving breach of contract, corporate governance, false advertising, and various employment matters.

Shay provides thought-out advice and counseling on employment law issues, including wage and hour compliance, navigating leaves of absence, and employee separations.

Shay is also an experienced advisor and litigator in the automotive industry. She regularly helps automotive dealerships navigate OEM disputes including audits, allocation of vehicles, relocations, and incentives.

Client Work

Automotive

- Successfully represented an automotive dealership in federal court, defeating RICO allegations after a three-week jury trial.

Fashion & Retail Law

- Prevailed on a motion to dismiss state wiretapping claims targeting retailer's website, with the court granting dismissal in full.

Consumer Products

- Secured a favorable arbitration award for a health and wellness company in a breach of contract dispute.

Professional Activities

Shay is a member of the American Bar Association, New York City Bar Association, and the National Association of Dealer Counsel.
